TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

Defendant 7-Eleven, Inc. (“7-Eleven”) hereby files this notice of clarification regarding the Court’s March 5, 2019 order issued as Docket No. 56, which states that “[t]he parties agreed at oral argument that discovery from class members is not needed for the merits of this case.”

6 This statement is true in light of the Court’s October 18, 2018 order granting 7 class certification in this matter, which accepted Plaintiff’s argument that class member 8 discovery would not be necessary for the resolution of this case. However, 7-Eleven is 9 filing this notice to clarify that it continues to respectfully disagree with the order 10 granting class certification in this matter, which rejected 7-Eleven’s arguments that 11 individual issues predominate because each class member would have to prove they 12 were in fact confused by the FCRA disclosure form at issue in order to establish a claim 13 for monetary relief. 7-Eleven continues to contend that the order should not have been 14 issued for these reasons, which are further stated in its opposition briefing to that 15 motion.
